

Woodham v. Scheller et al. 20-cv-304-LM

Motion to Provide Record for IFP Case

I'm requesting the district judge to certify that my appeal is non-frivolous (pls see accompanying notice of appeal) so I may be provided with a copy of the record in order to argue my case, as per 28 USC § 753(g).

(I also need to somehow get my hands on the local rules for this court as well as FRCP-appeals) (no my jail does not have it, and I cannot access the internet...)

Again I'd much rather simply resolve the issue in district court especially if it's a clerical error as I suspect. If the dismissal is "on-the merits" I need to be able to match up the decision with the doc#.

NOTICE OF APPEAL

Notice is given hereby that I, Grace Woodham, plaintiff in the above-named case hereby appeal to the US 1st Circuit from the motion to reconsider, denied 8/10/21.

I'd like the Court to note that I believe there has been a clerical error, that I asked for an extension of time on the objection to the R & R & moved, at least constructively, to state a federal claim.

I also submitted several motions for reconsideration, of which, perhaps, the clerk submitted only one. The judge should not have ruled on the motion for reconsideration when the objection had not yet been addressed. Again I believe there has been a clerical error and I would prefer this Court address it rather than waste the 1st Circuit's time on what might be an ultimately unnecessary shuffling of paperwork. Thank you for addressing this and can you please advise how I can access a copy of the record given that I am indigent & incarcerated: I really can't analyse the judge's decision or my mistakes of law if I don't know which one is doc #9, for example.

I put in a timely objection to the ~~motion~~ RLR
I've also expended the complaint to clearly state a CRB3 claim

I would like a copy of all files submitted under this docket.
Can u pls change to my ^{bill} acct (I will try 2 send check ~~but~~ no guarantee) is there any way I can review the docket w/o requesting copies?

I am in jail & can't visit w/ terminal & wasn't able 2 make my own copies

I believe that the clerk has misfiled my documents & accordingly this decision is in error. This is my notice of appeal (however I do that).

I think the ideal solution is to merge this claim with the 7 against Franconia PD but I don't know how.

Again I will need copy of the entire record & appeal including other active suits it seems would be much easier to simply fix the clerical issues @ the district level. Thank you - Grace Woodham, Grafton Doc
